DHC Delivers Immunization Supplies to JCPS

Doctors for Healthy Communities’ primary mission is to improve the health of communities by supporting local partners like our school system. One of the most effective ways to achieve this goal is to adequately immunize the population. We’re proud to supply JCPS with immunization supplies whenever possible to help protect the health of children throughout Louisville Metro. Thank you to Eva Stone, JCPS Manager of District Health, for all her good work.

Donated Clothes Come to Thomas Jefferson Middle School

Doctors for Healthy Communities board member Debbie Harper delivered clothes and shoes to Thomas Jefferson middle school for their “cloth pantry.”

DHC Brings Physicals to Thomas Jefferson Middle School

DHC and numerous volunteers from nearby nursing schools visited Thomas Jefferson Middle School for a day of student physicals. In just a single day, the group was able to complete 269 physicals for those in attendance.
